

Curriculum Vitae

JoEllen Lind

Valparaiso University School of Law
Valparaiso, Indiana 46383
(219) 465-7861
e-mail: joellenlind@att.net

Education

A.B., Stanford University, 1972 ("With Distinction"—highest university-wide honor then given)
Phi Beta Kappa
Honors in History
Honors in Humanities
Stanford Overseas, Vienna, Austria

J.D., University of California, Los Angeles, 1975
UCLA Law Review
Merit scholarship, second year
Judicial Extern, California Court of Appeals, Second Appellate District,
Justices Thompson and Lillie
First Year Summer Clerk—Center for Law in the Public Interest

Ph.D. Candidate (inactive), Department of Philosophy, University of Utah
Areas of specialization: Political Theory, Philosophy of Law
University Research Fellow, 1989-90
Tanner Research Fellow, 1990-91

Professional Experience

Professor of Law, Valparaiso University School of Law teaching (variously) Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law II (The First Amendment), Jurisprudence, and Remedies, August 1991 to the present

Associate Dean for Faculty Development, Valparaiso University School of Law, effective July 1, 2007

Visiting Professor of Law, Wayne State University School of Law teaching Contracts, E-Commerce, and Sales (2000-2001)

Visiting/Adjunct Professor of Law, Indiana University School of Law, Indianapolis ("IU") (simultaneously with regular teaching duties at Valparaiso University School of Law, taught evening section of civil procedure at IU in the academic year 1999-2000 and then again in 2002-2003)

Member, Indiana State Board of Law Examiners, term expires December 1, 2007

Tanner Research Fellow and Instructor, Department of Philosophy,

University of Utah, September 1989-June 1990

Visiting Professor of Law, University of Utah, teaching the Litigation Cornerstone (an advanced lecture course combining Civil Procedure II and elements of Conflicts, Remedies, and Federal Courts) and Advanced Commercial Law, July 1989-July 1990

Teaching Fellow, Department of Philosophy, University of Utah, assisting in the teaching of Introduction to Philosophy, Business Ethics, and Informal Logic, September 1988-June 1989

Attorney (associate, then partner), Jones, Waldo, Holbrook & McDonough, Salt Lake City, Utah; areas of practice included bankruptcy, corporate law, and business litigation in state and federal courts, March 1985-October 1986

Professor of Law, University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, Sacramento, California, teaching Contracts, Civil Procedure, and the Uniform Commercial Code, (other courses taught include Antitrust, Bankruptcy, and Consumer Protection), August 1977-Fall 1984

Associate Attorney, Ball, Hunt, Hart, Brown & Baerwitz, Beverly Hills, California, specializing in business litigation, 1975-1977

Publications

Philosophy (dissertation) —THE IDEA OF A CONSTITUENT GOOD (analysis of theories of intrinsic goods in political philosophy), draft

Valuing Relationships: the Role of Damages for Loss of Society, in Symposium, Civil Numbers: Examining the Spectrum of Non-Economic Harm, 35 N. M. L. REV. 301 (2005) (invited submission)

Punitive Damages, in 2004 OXFORD COMPANION TO THE SUPREME COURT (invited submission)

Procedural Swift: Complex Litigation Reform, State Tort Law, and Democratic Values, in Symposium, Complex Litigation, 37 AKRON L. REV. 717 (2004).

The End of Trial on Damages? Intangible Losses and Comparability Review, 51 U. BUFFALO L. REV. 251 (2003)

Public Education and Ideas of the Public Good, draft

The Judicial Power and the Commerce Power: Constitutional Limits on the Power of Congress to Displace State Law by Regulating Procedure, in process

Recent Developments in Civil Procedure, 35 IND. L. REV. 1158 (2002)(invited submission)

Indiana Civil Procedure, 34 IND. L. REV. 783 (2001)(invited submission)

Dependence, Emancipation, and the Harm Law May Reach, in THE COMMUNITARIAN READER 199-242 (David Carney ed. 1999) (invited submission)

Liberty, Community, and Framers' Intent, THE RESPONSIVE COMMUNITY, Fall 1998 (invited submission)

Liberty, Community, and the Ninth Amendment, 54 OHIO ST. L. J. 1259 (1994)

Dominance and Democracy: The Legacy of Woman Suffrage for the Voting Right, 5 U.C.L.A. WOM. L. J. 701 (1994)

Symbols, Leaders, Practitioners: The First Women Professionals, 28 VAL. U. L. REV. 1327 (1994)(invited submission for Seegers Lecture Series entitled, "First Women")

Excellence and Inclusion: An Aristotelian Argument for Opening the Canon, THE CRESSET, October 1992

Common Law Misrepresentation in Sales Cases, 14 FORUM 361 (1984)

The Federalization of Banking: Due-on Sale, A Case in Point, 15 PAC. L.J. 1 (1983)

De la Cuesta: Federal Determination of Contract and Property Rights? 14 PAC. L.J. 1 (1982)

Papers

"Lawyering in a World Economy: American Lawyers and their Role in Constituting Globalization," SASE Conference, Trier, Germany, July 2006 (invited submission)

"Actual Representation/Virtual Representation," SASE Conference, Budapest, Hungary, July 2005 (invited submission)

"The American Constitution and the Right to Education," Oxford Round Table on American Constitutionalism, Oxford University, Oxford, England, August 13, 2002

"The Moral Significance of Work as a Constituent Good," SASE Conference, Minneapolis, Minnesota, June 27, 2002 (invited submission)

"Majoritarianism and Communitarianism," SASE Conference, Amsterdam, Holland, July 2001(invited submission)

"Women's Condition and a Theory of the Bad Community," Communitarian Summit,

Washington, D.C., February 28, 1999 (invited submission)

"Moral Foundations of the Death Penalty," Alma College, Alma, Michigan, March 23, 1998

"The Independent Counsel Statute and the Health of the Political Community," Hope College, Holland, Michigan, March 31, 1998 and Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois, April 30, 1998

"The Moral Justification for Affirmative Action," Illinois Wesleyan College, Normal, Illinois, April, 1998 and St. Mary of the Woods College, Terre Haute, Indiana, April 30, 1998

"Teaching Methodologies for Bringing Diversity into the Law Classroom," SALT Civil Procedure Section, October 1994

"Federalism and Feminism," SALT Civil Procedure Section, October 30, 1993

"Myra Bradwell: the First Woman Lawyer," Seegers Lecture Series "First Women," November 1994

"Gender Neutral Language and the Generic Masculine," Department of Philosophy, University of Utah, 1991

"Women in the History of Philosophy," Conference on Celebrating Women's History, Jordan School District, Utah, 1991

CLE and Similar Presentations

"Recent Developments in Civil Procedure," Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum of the State Bar of Indiana, presenter, Indianapolis, September 2003

"Revised Articles 2 and 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code," Continuing Legal Education seminar conducted for Porter and Lake County, Indiana, attorneys, January 26, 2000

"Recent Developments in Attorneys Fees and Punitive Damages," Continuing Legal Education seminar conducted for Porter and Lake County, Indiana, attorneys, April 1995

"New Articles 3 and 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code," Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum of the State Bar of Indiana, panelist and presenter, Indianapolis, June 1994

"Obtaining Financing in a Poor Economy," Amicus Lex Seminar and Lecture, McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific, 1982

"The Guaranty Letter of Credit -- Adequate Security for the Subdivider's Duty to Make Improvements?" to the California League of Cities, 1981

Current Faculty Committees

Chair, Faculty Appointments Committee
Member of Budget and Planning Committee
Member of Petitions and Readmissions Committee

Professional Memberships

American Association of Law Schools ("AALS"), sections on Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Jurisprudence, Remedies, and Women in Legal Education—member of Civil Procedure Executive Committee, 1995

Society of American Law Teachers ("SALT")

Society for Women in Philosophy

Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics ("SASE")

Admitted California State Bar, 1975 (inactive status); admitted Utah State Bar, 1986 (inactive status), admitted State Bar of Indiana, 1998 (active status)

Miscellaneous Activities

Gromley Scholar 2006/2007

Hiller Distinguished Faculty Award 2005

Nominee Alumni Teaching Award 2007

Nominee Alumni Teaching Award 2005

Nominee Alumni Teaching Award 2003

Gromley Teaching Award, 1996

Professor Indiana CLEO, 2006

Professor, Indiana CLEO, 2002

Professor, National CLEO, 1996

Director, Indiana CLEO, 1998

Communitarian Network