UNIFIED IN PURPOSE, DISTINCT IN SERVICE

As a Valpo student you have access to numerous campus resources committed to your success inside and outside the classroom. Take advantage of our learning centers, where peer tutors are available to help you grow as a writer, strengthen your learning strategies, practice language skills, and thrive during your academic journey.

Academic Success Center

Location:
Christopher Center for Library and Information Resources,
Room 110

Function:
The ASC offers a variety of programs and services to support academic achievement, including the Peer Tutoring Program (serving many 100- and 200-level courses), Supplemental Instruction, and GS-100:

Strategies for Academic Success (1-credit course). Visit, call, or email the ASC to get more information about campuswide academic support resources.

Appointments:

To find out if you can be matched with a tutor in the Peer Tutoring Program for a 100- or 200-level course, the first step is to submit a Peer Tutor Request Form. A link to the form will be available on the ASC website during the fall and spring semesters.

Hesse Learning Resource Center

Location:
Gellersen Engineering and Mathematics Center,
Room 121

Function:
The Hesse Center provides walk-in peer tutoring and help sessions in 100- and 200-level math, science, and engineering courses required in the engineering program.

Appointments:

No appointments necessary for walk-in tutoring in first-year classes. Fall and spring semesters only.

Language Resource Center

Location:
College of Arts and Sciences, Room 240

Function:

The LRC provides tutoring and resources for students of French, German, Spanish, and other languages. We also facilitate opportunities for conversation exchange, including GS-106/180: English Conversation Partners, a 1-credit course that pairs international and domestic students for weekly conversation in English. Our computer lab and study spaces are available to all students.

Appointments:

Schedule using TutorTrac through the LRC website. Fall and spring semesters only.

Additional Campus Resources:

Counseling Center

Location:
Alumni Hall (Northeast side of building)

Function:

The Counseling Center assists students in overcoming personal issues that may negatively affect their ability to be successful and to make the most out of their experience at Valparaiso University. The primary service is one-to-one counseling. Go to our website to access helpful online and in-office resources and to learn more about the services you can receive.

Access and Accommodations Resource Center

Location:
Christopher Center for Library and Information Resources,
Room 165

Function:

The Access and Accommodations Resource Center provides students with disabilities equal access to an education and to university life. We do this by providing accommodations, support services, and special programs that are individualized to work toward student success.
