At Valpo, you can be part of something bigger without losing yourself in the crowd.

The class discussion that changes your course, the invitation to be part of the club that’s taking the stage, the recognition from experts that lets you know you’re exactly where you need to be — these are all the things waiting for you at Valpo.

Here, you’ll learn from people who care about your future. And you’ll find it’s almost impossible to resist getting swept up in the clubs and organizations. Because each person who comes to Valpo makes our community stronger. Whether or not they plan on it ahead of time, almost all of our students get involved in experiences that go beyond coursework.

We’re the place for people with the heart to envision a better world and the brains to make it happen. Find out how all the many different things about you — personal, professional, spiritual, emotional — can have a home on one campus.
Valpo is a special place to me because of the relationships I have built throughout the years. Whether it’s your teammates, other athletes, classmate, staff, or professors, so many people care about you and want to help you succeed and achieve your goals in life.
