

Assistant Professor Position – Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program

Valparaiso University has a tenure-track position in our CACREP-accredited Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program to begin August 2016. Candidates must have earned a doctoral degree in counselor education, preferably from a CACREP-accredited program OR have a related doctoral degree and have been employed as a full-time faculty member in a counselor education program for a minimum of one full academic year before July 1, 2013. Candidates who are ABD will be considered.

Specific areas of expertise are open and candidates should demonstrate teaching excellence and a clear interest in involving students in their program of scholarship. Candidates should be interested in working at a university engaged in issues in Christian higher education in the Lutheran tradition. In addition to strong academic qualifications and excellence in teaching, the University highly values experience in working across cultural and other significant differences. Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and the ability to work with individuals or groups from diverse backgrounds.

Valparaiso University is a top-ranked comprehensive private institution in Northwest Indiana located one hour from Chicago. Please submit vita, three references, and sample publications through Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/32434>. Inquiries may be directed to Dr. David Simpson, Director of Graduate Programs in Counseling and Psychology, 1001 Campus Drive South, Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, IN 46383. Application deadline for priority consideration: December 1.

Valparaiso University does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to develop and support a diverse community. Its entire EOE policy can be found at http://www.valpo.edu/generalcounsel/equal_opportunity_policy.php. Employment at Valparaiso University will require a satisfactory criminal background check.