Valparaiso University
Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering
Open Faculty Positions

To accommodate growth, the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Valparaiso University invites applications for two new tenure track faculty positions starting fall 2015. While the positions are available at the assistant professor level, outstanding candidates may be considered for higher ranks.

An earned Ph.D. degree in Electrical or Computer Engineering is expected by September 1, 2015. Candidates from all areas of Electrical and Computer Engineering will be considered. Successful candidates are expected to prepare and deliver high quality classes, engage in scholarly activities (involving students), and actively participate in campus citizenship. Valparaiso University’s College of Engineering is ABET-accredited, exclusively undergraduate, and committed to teaching.
