

Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology – Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Valparaiso University invites applicants for a one-year visiting assistant professor position in our CACREP-accredited master's degree program in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. The position will begin August 2017. We are seeking candidates who have earned a doctoral degree in counseling or a related field, but candidates who are ABD will be considered. Specific area of expertise is open, though some courses to be taught may include Human Development, Counseling Theories, and Community Agency Counseling.

Candidates should be interested in working at a university engaged in issues in Christian higher education in the Lutheran tradition. In addition to strong academic qualifications and excellence in teaching, the University highly values experience in working across cultural and other significant differences. Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and the ability to work with individuals or groups from diverse backgrounds. Valpo is a top-ranked comprehensive private institution in Northwest Indiana located one hour from Chicago.

Send vita, references, and supporting materials to Interfolio at <http://apply.interfolio.com/41891>. Inquiries may be directed to Dr. Angela Vernon, Chairperson, Department of Psychology, 1001 Campus Drive South, Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, IN 46383. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Valparaiso University does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to develop and support a diverse community. Its entire EOE policy can be found at <http://www.valpo.edu/general-counsel/policies/equal-opportunity-policy/>. Employment at Valparaiso University will require a satisfactory criminal background check.