Your FAFSA needs to be signed

We have received a recent transmission of your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from the Federal Processing Center. Your FAFSA was incomplete because it was missing one or more signatures. We are unable to process any federal aid until your FAFSA is signed.

To update your FAFSA with the needed signatures, please do ONE of the following:

Go to studentaid.gov, log into the FAFSA, and click on: "Provide Signatures"

Follow the instructions to either sign the FAFSA with the Signature Page that you will mail to the U.S. Department of Education, or sign your FAFSA electronically with your FSA ID.*

*(For dependent students) both you and at least one parent must have an FSA ID. If you do not have one or can't remember it, go to www.studentaid.gov and select "Create Account" and follow the instructions to create the FSA ID or to retrieve a forgotten username/password.

(Step Seven on the FAFSA)

If you are the student, by signing this application you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your college if you default on a federal student loan and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one college for the same period of time. If you are the parent or the student, by signing this application you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you electronically sign any document related to the federal student aid programs using an FSA ID (username and password) and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by that username and password and/or other credential, and have not disclosed that username and password and/or other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Everyone whose information was given on the FAFSA should sign below Electronic signatures are not accepted.
