Complicity, Respect of Others, Responsiveness

Complicity

Students are not to condone, support, or encourage the violation of a university regulation. Students are also expected to remove themselves from locations where a policy is being violated, and are encouraged to report the incident. Failure to leave an area where a regulation is being violated may result in a student being held accountable for the regulation that is being violated.

Respect of Others

No act which is inconsistent with respecting the dignity of all members of the University community will be tolerated. In addition, students are expected to provide accurate and honest information to professors, administrators, and other University personnel.

Responsiveness

Students are expected to respond promptly to requests to visit the office of a faculty member or administrator and to identify themselves on request by a University official.
