 - i. Advisor Ryan Blevins: This was a horrible incident; unfortunately this kind of thing can happen anywhere. We do have a system in place here at VU to provide help and support for students' mental health and other concerns. Being a small campus, students are less likely to fall through the cracks. RAs, faculty, and Administration are aware of signs to look for to keep everyone safe. Student Life manages the "hub" to keep track of the student population and concerns.
