WHO IS YOUR ORIENTATION ASSISTANT?

1 COREY MCCLURE '25

Corey McClure is a digital media and communications double major from Shelbyville, Indiana. His favorite part about Valpo is the fact that he is more than just a number when in the classroom – his professors genuinely care about him and want to see him succeed in as many ways as possible! Outside of classes, Corey is an overnight student ambassador, an ESPN Broadcast Crew member, and also the social chair for the Phi Delta Theta fraternity! Corey's pastimes include meditating, eating fruit, and hanging out with the boys.

2 MAIAH DEOGRACIAS '24

Maiah Deogracias is a communications and digital media arts double major from Fort Wayne, Indiana. Making her return as a second year orientation assistant, you can find Maiah all across campus – whether it be as the administrative vice president of Gamma Phi Beta, a dance marathon miracle maker, or a leader of the Public Relations Student Society of America! Trying new coffee shops, spending time with loved ones, and hanging out by a good bonfire are just some of Maiah's favorite things to do with her free time!

3 PARKER THOMPSON '24

From Gurnee, Illinois, Parker Thompson is a health care leadership major with minors in public health and human biology. Parker loves the constant positivity and reinforcement felt around campus and feels the connections she has made with other people are the best part about Valpo! Working as a resident assistant, Ambassador-In-Admission, and member of "The Beacon" yearbook, Parker wastes no time getting involved. In addition to her rigorous academics, you can find Parker involved with Kappa Delta leadership, playing tennis, finding new music to listen to, or going on adventures with her friends!

4 HENRY DEBRUIN '24

Henry DeBruin, a mechanical engineering major with minors in mathematics and humanities, is from Bloomingburg, Ohio. Henry is returning for his second year as an orientation assistant and loves how Valpo's size allows him to constantly meet new people while never feeling left out by professors and other faculty members. Henry is involved in the Hooked On Tonics a capella group, works as a resident assistant, and is also an undergraduate researcher working alongside his professors! When not occupied with academics or other organizations, Henry is usually playing video games like Pokemon, Kirby, and Metroid.

5 JAMES SROGE '23

James Sroge, from Munster, Indiana, is a history and secondary education double major who absolutely loves the friendly and vibrant environment on Valpo's campus! James' favorite memory was when women's volleyball made it to the finals of the National Invitational Volleyball Championship and the entire student section stormed the court in the Athletics-Recreation Center (ARC). Around campus, you can find James rehearsing with the Hooked On Tonics a capella group, commentating on WVUR 95.1 The Source, or acting as vice president of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Learning Community! You can also see him with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes or helping out as an Ambassador In Admission!

6 LIZZY MESSERSCHMIDT '24

Lizzy Messerschmidt, a communications major with a minor in German, is from Barrington, Illinois and is returning for second year as an orientation assistant! Lizzy transferred to Valpo after realizing how lively and vibrant the campus was and for how many opportunities she was given upon arrival. Lizzy also plans on studying abroad this coming academic year in England. Besides her coursework, Lizzy is a member of the Hooked On Tonics a capella group and also acts as the vice president of Learning and Development for Kappa Delta sorority! In her free time, Lizzy loves to bake, craft, and hang out with friends. She also loves playing Lego Star Wars, Animal Crossing, and Sudoku.

7 ANDI LEUKENS '23

Andi Leukens, from Santa Rosa, California, is a health science and pre-physician assistant double major! Her favorite part about Valpo is the sense of community present and how welcoming Valpo is to everyone who steps foot on campus. Andi is the vice president of event planning for Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, the treasurer of SPAC (an organization for undergraduates on the 5-year Pre-PA track), a member of the university Chorale, and so much more! One of her favorite parts about being a Valpo student is the large number of activities in which she can participate and lead while also being a STEM major. When not busy with her other commitments, she loves to binge Netflix shows, read, play sports, or practice musical theater!

8 GRACE ROBERTS '25

Grace Roberts is a psychology major from La Grange Park, Illinois with minors in both music and Spanish! She loves walking on Valpo's campus and feeling a sense of belonging everywhere she goes, no matter what class or club she is in. Her dream job is to be some kind of therapist or counselor after Valpo. Grace's favorite memory in college was during sorority recruitment when she was able to run home to her new sorority sisters! When it comes to organizations, Grace is involved in Valpo Music, the Social Action Leadership Team (SALT), Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, and the "Celebrate!" service at the chapel! Grace loves to dance, journal, make Tik Toks, and play piano in her free time.

9 CHRISTIAN MARHENKE '24

Christian Marhenke is a health care leadership major from Fresno, California! His favorite aspect about Valpo is how every professor he interacts with genuinely cares about his successes and works with him to help him achieve whatever he sets his mind to! What drew Christian into Valpo was the high caliber academics of Valpo's College of Nursing & Health Professions. Christian is a leader of the Valpo Esports Overwatch Team, a house council member and desk attendant of Beacon Hall, and also swing dances. When not in class or practice, Christian loves to go hiking, play video games, and drive long distances!

10 LESLEY PADILLA '23

Lesley Padilla is a social work major from Chicago, Illinois, and is returning for her second year as an orientation assistant! Lesley's favorite Valpo memory so far is last year's fall Valpo Vibes concert during Welcome Week where she was able to celebrate a new academic year with her best friends! When not in class, Lesley is president of Sigma Lambda Gamma sorority, an intern with the Valpo Cornerstone program, and also a member of LatinX in Valparaiso for Excellence. She also works as a lead resident assistant for the Residential Life Office! In her free time, Lesley loves to browse Tik Tok and hang out with her friends.

11 EMMETT TWOMEY '23

Emmett Twomey is a meteorology major and history minor from Orland Park, Illinois. Entering his third year as an orientation assistant, Emmett has the privilege of being lead orientation assistant for this year's FOCUS sessions! Emmett's favorite part about Valpo is the interpersonal connections and relationships he has been able to build with his fellow students, faculty, and other staff members. His favorite memory of Valpo is when the men's basketball team made a championship run in 2020 at the Arch Madness Tournament! When not in class, Emmett is president of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, a resident assistant, an Ambassador In Admission, and a member of VUDU Comedy! Emmett loves to build LEGO sets, pet his dogs, and visit museums in his free time.

12 MARTHA APONBIEDE '24

Martha Aponbiede is a computer science major from Abuja, Nigeria and is returning for her second year as an orientation assistant! When not in her classes, Martha is involved in the service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega, the Black Student Organization, acting as a senator for the National Society of Black Engineers, and so much more! Her favorite part about the Valpo experience has been as an orientation assistant and welcoming all the new students during FOCUS sessions.

13 RYAN DZIATKOWIEC '23

Ryan Dziatkowicz, a Spanish and secondary education double major from Batavia, Illinois, is returning for his second year as an orientation assistant! Ryan's favorite thing about Valpo is the encouragement students receive from the community to join different clubs and organizations they are passionate about. When not rollerskating or playing Pokemon, you can find Ryan giving campus tours as an Ambassador-In-Admission, helping out in his fraternity Lambda Chi Alpha, or setting up events with the University Programming Council (UPC)!

Welcome to VALPO

Dear Family Members:

Valparaiso University proudly welcomes you and your new Valpo student to FOCUS!

FOCUS provides you and your student with the knowledge and support necessary to ensure a successful transition to Valparaiso University. Activities have been carefully planned to enhance your total orientation experience; we encourage you to attend every session. Meet and greet as many other family members as possible. Take this time to inform and prepare yourself for this big transition.

The FOCUS staff is committed to facilitating your student's orientation, and we are available to help you throughout your visit.

Your student is now an important part of Valpo's close-knit community – and so are you. We're excited to welcome everyone to Valpo!

Sincerely,

Ryan Bye
